Telephone 1185. Petersburg, Va., December 23. gung Canadian named Landrum. Petersburg, Va., December 23.
A young Canadian named Landrum, who had agreed to purchase a farm near Petersburg, came to the city today to make payment on h. When he got off the train at the Appointatos depot he discovered that his pocket had been picked, and that he was minus $160. Mr. Landrum is not sure whether he was robbed in the station at Richmond white waiting for the train, or whether the robbery occurred on the train while en route to Petersburg. After he boarded the train at Richmond an affable young stranger took a seat beside him, made himself agreeable and kept company with him until they parted at Petersburg, the stranger continuing on south. A little later Mr. Landrum discovered that his pocket had been picked of his money—$160—and suspected that the affable stranger may have gotten it, theagth he had noticed nothing suspicious about him. The police think the robbery was committed in the Richmond station.

IIUST to extend to you the conventional Merry Christmas and Prosperous New Year seems to us to fall far short in expressing our grateful appreciation of the splendid exhibition of confidence you have extended to this house during the many years of our business life in this community.

We thank you for your liberal patronage, realize the responsibility it brings, and promise to exert every faculty and facility in measuring up to the high standard naturally expected, of this, the leading, largest and most progressive music house in the South.

Since taking over the business of the late Cable Piano Company, we have been made to know what "good will" really means.

Our business during the Transfer Sale has been tremendous, and, we believe, but foreshadows a future filled with the promise of greater success in catering to a generous but discriminating public.

With a line of Pianos and Piano-Players, Victors and Victrolas, and Musical Merchandise covering the widest possible field—a corps of careful, polite and trained employees-and a policy built on the foundation of fair prices, liberal terms and reliable goods, we enter the new year with a confidence gained from many years experience in successful catering to the best people on earth.

Again we wish you a Very Happy Christmas and a most Prosperous New Year.
